

WOMEN ON HOME DUTIES

218,000

Women on home duties, not participating in the labour force, aged 20-64 (Q3 2018)

122,500

Women on home duties with upper secondary education or less

57,000

Women on home duties with third level qualifications

A further 31,700 women on home duties held FET qualifications.

Family Status

47% of women with third level qualifications had children aged 5 years or younger, compared to 25% for women with upper secondary education or less

THIRD LEVEL QUALIFICATIONS

75%

share of women who have a partner in full-time employment

UPPER SECONDARY EDUCATION OR LESS

48%

share of women who have a partner in full-time employment

38%

who are either lone parents or have a partner who is also inactive in the labour market

Age & Experience

Women on home duties with third level qualifications are younger than those with upper secondary education or less –

62% aged under 45 have third level qualifications compared to 44% for upper secondary.

Those with upper secondary education or less are less likely to have previous work experience – 67% compared to 83% for third level graduates

Existence of previous work experience by year previously in employment

- 2015-2018
- 2010-2014
- Prior to 2010

Upper sec or less

Third level

Most women on home duties do not want a job but there is a potential future supply to the labour market:
10,200 women with upper secondary education or less | 6,600 women with third level qualifications